Based on the table, we can see that the entity 'l' and 'w' are used to indicate a loss and a win respectively. We will fill in the masked entities with the corresponding team names. The sentence with the masked entities filled in is: the most point scored by the [l] in a single game was [w].