To fill in the masked entities, we need to analyze the given table and identify the missing information. Based on the table, we can see that the missing information is the name of the home team and away team for each match. Here is the sentence with the masked entities filled in: the University for the game when the St Kilda was University and University Fitzroy was Fitzroy. Here is the full sentence: the University for the game when the St Kilda was University and University Fitzroy was Fitzroy.