The game between Geelong and North Melbourne brought the largest crowd during that round.